

Carol Price

After retiring in 2003 I was looking for a new challenge in my life. I have always appreciated art and have fond memories of a special Aunt who, when I was a child, used to take me round all the art galleries in London.

With no formal art tuition, those childhood experiences gave me, an amateur, the challenges I needed, encouraging me to paint in watercolour, oils and gouache.

Through recreational courses and work shops I have been able to progress and it has been a long and rewarding journey with many friendships made along the way.

I have been a member of Art for Leisure and Pleasure since March 2014.
